

PAUL DENEUI MINISTRIES

"Strengthening The Saved & Saving The Lost"

April 2019

Dear Friends,

Back in 2014 an article was written in the Connections magazine about this nursing home ministry. The Connections magazine is written to those who are alumni of Rhema Bible Training College. I'd like to share a couple of paragraphs with you from that magazine.

Paul DeNeui grew up as a preacher's kid. But in 2009 when the Lord called him to full-time nursing home ministry, he'd never heard of such a thing.

Paul had, however, prayed several years before, "Lord, put me in situations where I can be used the most." Now he ministers in about 20 nursing homes every two weeks.

"The church has a real opportunity here," says Paul. "There are lost and hurting sheep in nursing homes who are lonely, depressed, sick, without family, and needing love. This is home missions! Whether you go or you send, we need to be there."

As I travel the highways and byways of eastern Oklahoma I see this bracelet on my wrist. (It's made of fishing swivels.) It reminds me of Matt. 4:19, "Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men." That is what we are doing. We are bringing people to Christ.

Then, in the summer of 2018, the Lord showed me James 1:27 and asked me to complete the first half of that verse. The second half talks about caring for widows. (There are many widows in nursing homes.) The first half is caring for orphans; those who are alone and have no family. (I see many of those on trails and paths around town. We call them "the homeless".)

Warner/Tahlequah

There were several residents in the meeting room as I entered the door. (It's always good to see staff that prepares for an upcoming meeting.) There are people who live here with a real variety of needs - all forms of long term care - both mental and physical. We raised our voices and praised the Lord with many of the long standing hymns. Then we looked into the Word and saw that according to His promises He can meet all our needs if we trust Him and receive. Yes Lord, I receive!

Broken Arrow

We are finishing up the month by staying on the theme of Easter - "He Is Risen". This morning we saw many residents pressing in and rededicating themselves to the Lord. It might have been cloudy on the outside, but the Son was shining on the inside. Now it's time to hit the trails and minister to the homeless.

Whether we are on the road or on the trail we are:
Strengthening The Saved & Saving The Lost.

Once again, I want to thank each and every one of you who help make this ministry possible. The Lord spoke to me in 2009. He said there would be people, I call them "Life Senders", who would see the vision of this ministry and send Life through their prayers and financial giving. You are those people. Thank you for responding to the call.
